It can be intimidating to begin trading binary options.

For this reason, we asked ChatGPT to mimic the five most typical beginner questions from one of the most well-known beginner guides on the internet, CloseOption's must-read article. The outcome? A succinct, AI-powered Q&A session that provides you with a comprehensive grasp of binary options, including:

- What occurs if your prediction is incorrect?
- How can I pick the ideal expiration time?
- Which resources are most suitable for novices?
- How much should I begin with?
- What distinguishes a put from a call?
