

[\[text\] FBS Review](#) On April 16, 2015, the Philippines capital, Manila, hosted the Angat Pilipinas Financial Literacy award ceremony. FBS acted as a Gold Sponsor of the event. The day of the festive ceremony was marked by an honouring of the best in the finance and bank industry, as well as by a series of workshops. During the award ceremony, five winners in different categories received unique trading accounts at FBS with a starting balance of 200$ and limitless possibilities for funds deposit and withdrawal as gifts. FBS was directly involved not only in the winners awarding ceremony, but also in increasing financial literacy level, having organized an interesting seminar for all guests of the event. More than that, the company volunteers were meeting the visitors at the entrance and telling them about trading opportunities and unique promotions by FBS. The aim of the Angat Pilipinas Financial Literacy Awards ceremony is to seek out and recognize leaders in promoting financial literacy. FBS company is always ready to participate in such festivals, as well as in all remarkable events around the world, particularly in those manifesting progress!
