

[text] Forex Brokers News Reduced Stop-Out Level on Our ECN Accounts The new stop-out level will take effect starting Monday the 18th of May, 2015. Lowering the stop-out level will provide you with more freedoms when developing your trading strategy among other advantages such as:

- The ability to sustain a higher drawdown while not being stopped-out
- The opportunity to maintain open orders with greater volume
- Increasing your chances to recover from an unfavorable position
